Three women. Two Conspiracies. One Crown.In a world where immortals walk among man, a prophesy foretells the birth of a new age, one where man must live without the grace and capriciousness of the gods. But it also foretells the coming of the three from another world to usher in the death of the old age. Jares has little interest in the world around him. Breaking up the tedium of his immortal existence with casual dalliances and practiced apathy. But when Adelia lands in front of him, he finds a new diversionmdash;one he isnrsquo;t supposed to be interested in. Ignoring the warnings, he pursues Adelia until he realizes he wants much more from her.Adelia leads a cloistered at the Estate, learning of the lands and the people from books and lectures. Yet shersquo;s still not safe from those who would see her destroyedmdash;a conniving queen, an envious acolyte, and a vindictive Goddess. And the perils of diplomacy arenrsquo;t the only risks she faces, her heart is in danger of being broken by Jares. Set in a lush world of fallible gods, uncertain prophesies, and unscrupulous nobility, Crown of the Gods is a fantasy novel of romance, lavishness, and intrigue. Discover the tale of one womanrsquo;s destiny to become the Crown of the Gods and an immortalrsquo;s rediscovery of his humanity.
